Kitty Easter Egg Hunt

Starring Pepper!

Just like you, many cats will love an Easter Egg Hunt... especially if it involves their favourite treats! They can't have chocolate like us, so here are steps to make a cat-friendly egg hunt for your kitty!

To make your kitty Easter eggs, you'll need an egg carton, scissors, something to draw with (we used biros, textas & highlighters) and your cat's favourite treats.

TIP: If your cat is on a special diet you can use their kibble instead, or dried catnip!

Cut the individual half-egg shapes from the carton. You may need to get an adult to help you with this as the cardboard is thick!

Decorate the outsides of the cut-out eggs. You can even write your cat's name on them if you'd like! Then put the treats, kibble, or catnip into one half of each egg.

Join the eggs back together. You can use clear sticky tape if you want, but remember your cat will need to be able to undo the eggs and get their treats!

Now it's time to hide your cat's Easter eggs in safe places around the house

Shhh!

OOOOO WHAT'S THIS!?

SMIFF, SNIFF, IT SMELLS GREAT.

yum, my FAVOURITE!!!

TIP: If you want to watch your cat find their Easter eggs, let them sniff one before you hide it or shake it so they can hear the treats rattle. They'll know something is up!
